J. O. Steinheiser, Superintendent of the Lancaster Co., Pa., hospital, writes: "I used it in a great many cases of dyspersis, kidney disease, liver complaint, rheumatism, asthma and scrofula, and invariably with best results." F. Hoffman, of Circleville, Ohio, says: "This is to certify that I have had the dumb ague, and by using one bottle of Mishler's Herb Bitters a complete cure has been effected."

The weather has moderated, and it is very pleasant at present. The soft fleeces of white snow came swiftly down, and many wished that a snow of 8 or 9 inches would fail, so as to make sleigh-riding good. Some entertain fears, that the late cold weather was injurious to the wheat, but when we consider that it was protected by snow to some extent, we do not think that these fears have any grounds.
